

ÖREBRO UNIVERSITY
SWEDISH BUSINESS SCHOOL

CALL FOR PAPERS
8th European Development Research Network (EUDN)
Workshop for PhD Students

hosted by the Department of Economics, Swedish Business School at Örebro
University, Sweden

30 August - 1 September 2009

The EUDN Workshop for PhD Students aims to give PhD students in Development Economics an opportunity to present their papers in an informal environment, as well as to exchange the results of recent and ongoing research in different fields of development economics. This year's seminar is organized jointly by the European Network of PhD students in Development Economics and the Department of Economics, Swedish Business School at Örebro University, Sweden. It will take place in Örebro, Sweden.

Contributions from all possible fields of development economics are welcome. Papers accepted for presentation will be assigned to a qualified discussant.

The key-note speech will be delivered by Prof. Arne Bigsten, University of Gothenburg, Sweden and Prof. Jean-Philippe Platteau, University of University of Namur, Belgium.

Dates to remember

The seminar is taking place 30 August - 1 September 2009. An abstract of max. 250 words and a full paper (preferably in pdf-format) should be submitted by 15 June 2009 to Daniela.Andren@oru.se. Acceptance notes with further information will be sent by the end of July 2009.

Travel and accommodation

Department of Economics at the Swedish Business School, Örebro University will cover accommodation costs, but the participants are kindly asked to pay their travel.

For further questions please email to eudn@oru.se